

First Presbyterian Church OF OKLAHOMA CITY

February 5, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On behalf of the Session and congregation, I welcome you to First Presbyterian Church of Oklahoma City for the stated meeting of Indian Nations Presbytery on Friday and Saturday, February 23 and 24.

As we prepare for the meeting, I remind you of the assurance of Matthew 18:20: "For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them." It is indeed a joy and a blessing to gather in worship, fellowship, and business as a Presbytery because we do not go about it alone but together with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

We are a connectional denomination. As such, we are privileged to celebrate our joys and sorrows together, pursue our dreams together, and face our challenging realities together. I very much look forward to being together with you soon, seeing old friends and making new ones as we live into God's future ministry and mission for Indian Nations Presbytery. Thanks be to God for the ties of love, faith, and friendship that bind us.

First Presbyterian is located at 1001 NW 25th Street in Oklahoma City. The parking lot is located directly south of the church on 25th Street. Wheelchair access to the Sanctuary is available through the portico located on the southwest side of the Sanctuary, off of Western Avenue.

Registration will be held in the narthex, directly inside the front doors of the Sanctuary.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

Peace in Christ,

Rev. John C. McKinnon
